

Definition and warnings:

Red Area	This area is intended for the opening space. Do not place important elements such as texts or logos in this area.
Green Area	This is the surface of the product. Important design elements should be placed in this area.
Purple Area	This is the printing area. Make sure your entire design fills this area.

Important data should be within the green line, but not closer than 2-3 mm to the green line: text or logos